

Koffin Kats, She's Deadly

Poisoned by beauty, she keeps me in her web
Lips laced with venom, it puts me close to death
I try to escape, she always pulls me back
Constant reminder that Im just a pet

And yes she's deadly
She's so deadly
She breaks you aprt and tears out your soul, deadly
She's so deadly
I can't forget cause she can't let me go

Caged as a dead rat
She treats me like a dog
Burns me with tasers and tells me Im wrong she says she'll kill me, I know somebody she will Look at me bleeding, with love for her still
