

Komodo, Beautiful Girl (feat. Howard Dee)

The very first time that I saw you
I remember what a feeling
Surreal yet then in moments it came true
Your heart it was reeling me

Tell me what's a man supposed to do
To get a little closer
Do you feel the same connection too
Girl it's driving me insane

And I know that my heart is so true
I gotta tell you

Beautiful girl
You rock my world
My everything
Beautiful girl
You are from heaven
And I see in you
Such a beautiful face
Most beautiful eyes I've ever seen
Beautiful girl you are from heaven
Beautiful girl you are from heaven

Girl you are the sunshine
You're the light that helps me see
You're my dreams
You are good that's changed my life's reality
If I run girl say you'll follow you compliment my soul
That's why you'll always be the lover by my side
That's why you'll always be the reasons I can't hide

Beautiful girl
Beautiful girl

Beautiful girl
You rock my world
My everything
Beautiful girl
You are from heaven
And I see in you
Such a beautiful face
Most beautiful eyes I've ever seen
Beautiful girl you are from heaven
Beautiful girl you are from heaven
Beautiful girl you are from heaven
