

Konkhra, Lowlife

In your life, all you wanted
Was the making of the right choices
A good life preserved
But you lack the strength to overcome yourself
Life is a battle, yours is a war

What made you this pathetic kind
The kind I can only despise, cannot pity cause you lack Good qualities, human kindness
There's nowhere for you to turn
You are the lowest, the worst of human kind

An addict, a misfit
White thrash piece of shit
Your life at it's best is misery
You've lost your integrity
Was never meant to be
Your life at it's best is misery

When our paths cross you disgust me
Could never be lead into your temptation
That everhunger
Everhunger, like a vampire
You suck the lifeblood of your dear ones
You're the worst of human kind
