

Kooks, Something To Say

Oh lady come on over
Oh won't you please hold my hand
Because nothing seems to work in my head anymore, oh
I give you one two three four

Because I mean something to say
Before the feeling goes away
And your out of my life
Oh you jump into his

Oh lady won't you come over
And we could have some fun
Because nothing seems to work in my bed anymore, oh
I give you one two three four

Because I mean something to say
Before the feeling goes away
And you're out of my life
Oh you jump into his

Oh oh oh oh oh
Love love love love love
Oh oh oh oh oh

I give you one two three four

Because I mean something to say
Before the feeling goes away
And you're out of my life
Oh you jump into his

Oh oh oh oh
Na na na na
Yeah yeah
Yeah!

We all we all have something to say
