

Korn, Black Is The Soul

As it all falls down
Do I walk away
Or do I stand my ground?
Any accept my fate?

And there's the faceless cries
That twist my every dream
And almost every night
I hear the demons sing

Why are we going ion this way?
Why do we play these games in vein?
Nothing's gonna break it down and build us back again
So why did the path have to lead this way
Black is the souls that's led astray
Leading me to places I can never follow

Happiness is found in the darkest ways
And as I search around
I make nothing but mistakes

And there's the faceless cries
That twist my every dream
And almost every night
I hear the demons sing

Why are we going ion this way?
Why do we play these games in vein?
Nothing's gonna break it down and build us back again
So why did the path have to lead this way
Black is the souls that's led astray
Leading me to places I can never follow

And whe you scream
You push me so much further ahead
And when I leave , I always walk right back wgain
And when you cry
The tears are cleansing bitterness
I;m out of time
I;m slowly dying

Give me back my life
Just Give me back my life /3x

Why are we going ion this way?
Why do we play these games in vein?
Nothing's gonna break it down and build us back again
So why did the path have to lead this way
Black is the souls that's led astray
Leading me to places I can never follow

As it all falls down
Do I walk away
Or do I stand my ground?
There's nothing left to say
