

Korn, Got The Life (Clean)

I think this is the most talking I've ever done in my whole career.
We're gonna play Got The Life for ya'll.

Hate, something, sometime, someday
Something kick down the front floor
Mine, something, inside
I'll never ever follow
So give... me... some... thing... that... is... for... real
I'll never ever follow.

Get your boogie on.
Get your boogie on.

Hate, something, someday, each day
Feeling ripped off again, no.
Why? This (...) inside.
Now everyone will follow
So give... me... noth... ing... just... feel
And now the (...) will follow.

God thanks me
The more I see the life.
Who wants to see?
God told me
I've already got the life
Oh, I say...

God thanks me
The more I see the life.
Who wants to see?
God told me
I've already got the life
Oh, I say...

Each day I can feel it swallow
Inside always beating from me
I don't want to feel your deathly ways
Each day I feel so hollow
Inside always beating me
You'll never see
So come dance with me.

Dance with me.

Dance with me.
Me!

God thanks me
The more I see the life.
Who wants to see?
God told me
I've already got the life
Oh, I say...

God thanks me
The more I see the life.
Who wants to see?
God told me
I've already got the life.

Got The Life. (x9)
