

Korn, Hollow Life (Unplugged Version)

Feeling the fall
I can't help but desire of falling down this time.
Deep in this hole am I making?
I can't escape
Falling all this time.

We come to this place
Falling through time
Living a hollow life
Always we're taking
Waiting for signs
Hollow life.

Fearing to fall
And still the ground below me calls
Falling down this time
Ripping apart all these things I have tried to stop
Falling down this time.

We come to this place
Falling through time
Living a hollow life
Always we're taking
Waiting for signs
Hollow life.

Is there ever any wonder
Why we look to the sky?
Search in vain.
Asking why?
All alone.
Where is God?
Looking down?
We don't know.

We fall through space
We can't look down
Death may come
Peace I have found.
What to say?
Am I alive?
Am I asleep?
We fall down.

We come to this place
Falling through time
Living a hollow life
Always we're taking
Waiting for signs
Hollow life.

Is there ever any wonder
Why we look to the sky?
Search in vain.
Asking why?
All alone.
Where is God?
Looking down?
We don't know.

We fall through space
We can't look down
Death may come
Peace I have found.
