

Korn, I Will Protect You

What you gonna do, what you gonna feel when suddenly I slip away?
Almost am a ghost of who I used to be yesterday
How you gonna touch and how will you collect the beauty when it turns to dust?
Everything we make, the cells we generate are both of us

Please be aware that I am you
Nothing could be more certain
This ain't the time, the place for us to understand this life

Hold you in my arms, hold you in my gaze
Save you with my dying breath Underneath this earth I'd resurrect your soul and nothing less
Sorry for the space, if I could fill the void an ocean wouldn't hold the love And everything I have and all I ever was is not enough

Know that I am you
Know that I am you
Know that I am you
I will protect you

Please be aware that I am you
Nothing could be more certain
This ain't the time, the place for us to
understand this life

I will protect you
I will protect you

Please be aware that I am you
Nothing could be more certain
This ain't the time, the place for us to
understand this life

This ain't the time, this ain't the place
This ain't the time, this ain't the place
This ain't the time, this ain't the place
This ain't the time, this ain't the place
This ain't the time, this ain't the place!
This ain't the time, this ain't the place!
This ain't the time, this ain't the place!

I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you
I will protect you.
I will protect you.
