

Korn, Love Song (Unplugged Version)

Mother!
Your holding my heart, screaming
Mother...
You left me broken, bleeding
Son of!
The man you loved and left for
The son of a bitch!
Who tried to show me death's door.

Everything's eliminated
Everything is dedicated
Tried to leave this life I hated
Living it was overrated.

Love song for the dear departed
Headstone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
More flowers to steal
Head trip for the mortal earthbound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here.

As in!
The bitch who worries rain down
And some of them!
Were lying naked face down.

What's it like decapitated?
Can you see me fascinated?
Your the only thing goddamn it
Only debt can be miss-managed.

Love song for the dear departed
Headstone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
More flowers to steal
Head trip for the mortal earthbound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here.

Don't bring me Daffodils
Bring a bouquet of pills
Seeds of Geranium
Crack to the cranium
Protect me when you can
Respect me when I am dying.

Love song for the dear departed
Headstone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
More flowers to steal
Head trip for the mortal earthbound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here.

Love song for the dear departed
Don't bring me Daffodils, Bring a bouquet of pills
Head stone for the broken hearted
Seeds of Geranium, Crack to the cranium
Arms to kill
Protect me when you can, Respect me when I am

More flowers to steal
Dying
Head trip for the mortal earthbound
Don't bring me Daffodils, Bring a bouquet of pills
One sip of the blood that I found
Seeds of Geranium, Crack to the cranium
Lying here
Protect me when you can, Respect me when I am
I'm dying here.
