

Korn, Throw Me Away (Clean)

We're doing this song.

Again we were tryin' to figure out different ways to make this.

Special and different because of the acoustic thing we're not really used to this.

And we decided to invite a Tyco and sound volume up to this.

These are Japanese Tyco drums and I think it's really amazing.

It's when we're all playing together.

So, um... I want to... I can do their thing in this song.

We're gonna go into a strum-y way we'll just let them go first.

Flesh wound, flesh wound

With medication it will fade.

Should I assume that someone hears me when I pray?

Love full of hate.

Don't you love how I break?

Don't let them throw me away!

Aha!

Keep me and I'll be okay!

Aha!

Skipping a beat but it plays!

Aha!

Don't let them throw me away!

Aha!

Don't let them throw me away.

Screwed up, used up

Crumpled lying on the floor

[...] up, shut up

All you did back then was score

I'm feeling weak

Missing parts

Incomplete.

Don't let them throw me away!

Aha!

Keep me and I'll be okay!

Aha!

Skipping a beat but it plays!

Aha!

Don't let them throw me away!

Aha!

Don't let them throw me away.

Don't let them throw me away.

Don't let them throw me away.

Hold me up into the light

Fix the cracks fix them right

Keep the pieces in the drawer

Keep them there for ever more

May come in use for someday

Recycle this [...] in someday

And all that I have to say

Please let them throw me away.

Don't let them throw me away!

Aha!

Keep me and I'll be okay!

Aha!

Skipping a beat but it plays!

Aha!

Don't let them throw me away!

Aha!

Don't let them throw me away.

Thank you guys very much for coming out tonight.
It was awesome.
I really appreciate it.
Ya'll have a good night.
