

Kosheen, Suzy May

It's your call
Hear the answer
Cross the hall
As freedom dances
As the smoke screen rises
There they stand in their disguises

You come blazing
Waving your arms and your attitude
I don't notice you
Suzy May
Oh what is it coming to?
Why is it down to you?
You come blazing

Smell so sweet
And taste so bitter
Struck with paint
And doused in glitter
This is for the back row
You better stand up mister
Or you'll miss the show

You come blazing
Waving your arms and your attitude
I don't notice you
Suzy May
Oh what is it coming to?
Why is it down to you?
You come blazing

Little girl in the mirror
Jesus loves a sinner
Put on your lipstick
And get another quick fix
You better be something
You better keep on running
Or jump from a building
You never really lived in
So you want to be a superstar?
Yeah

You come blazing
Waving your arms and your attitude
I don't notice you
Suzy May
Oh what is it coming to?
Why is it down to you?
You come blazing
Waving your arms and your attitude
I don't notice you
Suzy May
Oh what is it coming to?
Why is it down to you?
You come blazing

Come blazing
Girl in the mirror
Girl in the mirror
Little girl in the mirror
You wanna be a superstar?
