

Kotipelto, Last Defender

As I stare at the sky i know soon I will die dreams are falling I can see the end in sight but I'll face my last fight someone's calling

All I see are shattered buldings bodies on the ground
And I hear bombs exploding with the sound of doom

Such insanity
Lack of reason in their strategy Egos on the edge now Driving soldiers to their graves

All I hear, guns are blazing madness raging on Fighting through the stoness

In the ruins of the strong Burning blinding smoke as the reaper comes along

Now I know victory's a dream as winter nears
And I am surrounded by my fears

(Chorus)
There's no hope, I feel so cold all is lost, I've been told no surrender
We shall fight till we die but tonight, I won't cry last defender

I can see as snow falls slowly drifting down on me
I can't feel a thing as I'm set free
