&lt;/lyrics&gt;

Choose the present moment when our hearts throb faster and we touch each other
Go forward towards the end of time

I murmured in the night of one empty sky after another
The words which said &quot;See you tomorrow&quot;
They are like the sun which shines and illuminates the surroundings
I'm scorched by its strength and eternity

If there is one thing to be left behind
It would be this instantaneous smile which held on to existence
If there is only one thing to be protected, it would be your future

In an instant, choose this world which shakes and tremors
I've always soared above the land of fate
I'm secretly hiding the flame which has lit in my heart
I will give my present and future to you

Your narrowed eyes came into my mind first
The endlessly spreading sky
I saw the illusion of you who have found wings on your back
Going far off into the distance

Every time you dressed up coldly
Something is being crushed by a thick sound
Be sure to come across
Every lit up color

I will choose you and the present in which both cannot be replaced
You've always worn a rainbow at night
The strength which is certainly there will change into time
I will cross the sky and sea

Choose the present moment when our hearts throb faster and we touch each other
I'm sure we can live for fate
Someday, the disappearing flame will change into wishes
I will give my dreams and future to you...
I will cross the sky and sea...
