evaluate every situation we get placed in kottonmouth kings is a lifestyle movement only way to get it done is if you do it i aint gonna be the one left looking stupid 60 wishin that i did this shit while i still could writing the kings first rhymes , kottonmouth was born it was just startin to pop, had a 2 song demo people thought it was hot so we started playin shows, representin for the crown time to let the world know how the kings get down didnt have no band, just my mic and a mock i spit one verse, people said d-loc was tight that was all it took, so i didnt look back next thing we know, record deal, livin fat tourin the country, puttin up some stats mtv k-rock this and that
