

Kottonmouth Kings, Float Away

Everytime I close my eyes, I start to drift away..
Thinkin bout some days gone by, how time just floats away..
Everytime I hear that song, puts a smile on my face..
Brings me back to good friends and times, that money can't replace..

Everytime I close my eyes, I start to drift away..
Thinkin bout some days gone by, and how they just float away..
Everytime I hear that song, puts a smile on my face..
Brings me back to good friends and times, that money can't replace..

Everytime I close my eyes I'm lost in a daze
Thinkin about the things that I really wanna say
And all the old games we played at nickle lickle arcade Workin at tha donut shop we dreamed of gettin payed yeah the dishes got dirty, we got cascade
The weather was hot, we got a spot in tha shade
Well no lie, before we high, always rocken fresh bass before tha spade in tha stage we was drinkin underage yeah

Everytime I close my eyes, I start to drift away.. (ananananana)
Thinkin bout some days gone by, and how they just float away..
Everytime I hear that song, puts a smile on my face..(ananananana)
Brings me back to good friends and times, that money can't replace..

Now I was driven down tha Ave. We on tha radio now you know tha good times we had, when we in front of tha crowed
Always holdin it down for myself and tha boys
Back in 95's when we first got live, we was 18 years old on tha run havin fun playin shown in tha sun, no bus when we begun
we had a van and a plan doin clubs everynight
Down in california dream we be livin that chaos(California California)

Everytime I close my eyes, I start to drift away.. (ananananana)
Thinkin bout some days gone by, and how they just float away..
Everytime I hear that song, puts a smile on my face..(ananananana)
Brings me back to good friends and times, that money can't replace..

When your time comes, and your numbers up..
All you have in life, is whats left in your cup and when tha whisle blows and tha partys over, dont let em' drag you out bored up an sober yeah whats done is done, and whats said is said and tha treat you have a Lyin' in your bed let your memories be through with no regrets theres no second chance, theres no turnin back Soo..

Everytime I close my eyes, I start to drift away.. (ananananana)
Thinkin bout some days gone by, and how they just float away..
Everytime I hear that song, puts a smile on my face..(ananananana)
Brings me back to good friends and times, that money can't replace..

HEY.. ananananana
I wanna float away... ananananana
