

Kottonmouth Kings, On The Run

In the aftermath, of a battle won we celebrate with the rising sun Sub Noize tribe good god we on the run and we wont stop till the war is won because we strong like a green beret special forces of peace and unity day to day song to song the battle rages on replenishing my soul the mighty power of my zong when im thinking bout back home when im wondering why howd i end up on the road whats the effect on my life why like a fugitive we on the run runnin like were under the gun you know we do it all for you because your motives are true were on the run till the war is won our work aint done

you know wed rather be with you on the road doin shows my lifes been crazy for the past 5 years its been me and my lady only good things come for those who truly believe all the time i spent alone i never thought i would leave so in life i live and learn i aint takin nothin back with the things that have happened that are makin me sad another day goes by gotta show respect its a love that i give and that i dont regret another town down another show we musta wrecked another day close to being home i get, with the tears blood and sweat the sacrifices made, if there were fans and a P.A. then we wanted to play, way before gettin paid way back when we was dreamin, when i worked the nine to five to cover up the triple beamin, when i never thought of leavin have you always by my side, howd i end up on the road whats the effect on my life why

our work aint done

?????? penetrating zongs the freedom fights on we multiplying like clones every days a new day gettin high feel lovely enlighten minds were trying to rise above see for too long they havent treated us right their motives wrong cause its the people they fight we sing this song so everybody unite freedom fighters keep pushin on
