

Kottonmouth Kings, Watch Your Back

I dont know who to trust no more let it go itll take me to war thats those voices in my head its got me over seeing red see i dont wanna cross the line buts thats the fuckin last time you ever try to play me out now this shit is going down

[chorus]

watch your back homie watch your back [X5]

watch your back now dayz all these busters alwayz lookin at me sidewayz sizing me up tryin to figure out how i play but i aint playin with these motherfuckers no way not today or anyday i learned the hard way no double cross and backstabs your ? money funny friends went bad its high stakes if family members scheme on you so no your enemy and only trust a chosen few

[Chorus]

Yo ? this suckers talkin smack run yo mouth were you at look at me like im wak is he fake can he rap dont get hit by his badge your the klick hes tha klack im a dog your a cat im takin it makin it sound so great so listen to the master demonstrate when i smoke this blunt and elavate like damn our boys a heavyweight we gonna bake to see if tonights the night like damn our boys 'll make it hot like damn our boys 'll boys we just dont stop like damn our boys callin the shots i know some kats that always talk alot but did nothin your never win you ending losing if you alwasy bluffing so you movin cakes but you really only bakin muffins rakin up P's get rid of shit in bakers dozen big mounds yeah
they'll bound to catch it too we knew who ran the lick and there day is coming soon you gotta watch your back i know im watchin mine just ask my soldiers who be holdin down the front line

[Chorus]

you eva had a bitch a friend that claimed that they was done for you i mean the loyal type you trusted thought they was true you let deep inside kept them fed you kept them high come to find out every word they said was just a fuckin lie you feel like mystical take it to another level get down and ? make him rush it with the devil but they aint even worth the time sweat or energy just learn a listen on the friend you trust and keep after yourself to many people got it all wrong burnin bridges when they should be mended more hes only at the top cause everybodys after you you gotta watch your back yeah thats what you gotta do business and personal shit learn how to split well too many motherfuckers actin fake go to hell

i aint energy or time to waste on wasted talent i keep movies straight and foward never ever lose my balance i keep it poppin
i aint from compton (westside)
i am a heavyweight in the gamesid by havin the buds that with no single no we got the whole count watch your back
watch your back
watch your back motherfucker cause im comin through the front and smellin like a shunk just ask doctor green i bout the killa kali kush blunts realize who your true friends and your enemies are cause when the end comes you get fucked over you betta watch your back dawg

[Chorus]

times like these its gettin hard to see hope you see your friends now and whose your enemie want to see the end i guess it all depends what you call an enemie and who you call a friend
