

Kp And Envyi, Swing My Way (Remix)

ooooh uhh...

Chorus

Shorty swing my way
Sure look good to me now would you please Swing my way
Shorty swing my way

Ooh we boy do you know the joy I feel the second I see Your eyes Im hypnotized and wide To the games your playin with me
The lies you tell
See if he knows the deal But its irrelevant tonight Cuz boy youre so fly Come on and swing by

Chorus

I heard through a friend that you had been with someone for close to 10 months and i don't know why you told me a lie cuz i don't really give up tonight it's me and you so whatcha wanna do i plan on making you mine i know you broke up last night so swing on by and baby we can set it off

Chorus

(KP)

you think you can put it down like me K.P another type player infront of the K.A.P E.R Z fresh i'm a ghetto super star YES YES YES and you'll get broken down and i love your choclate brown but when i told my folks in town they said i better keep it safe and sound set it out (set it out) set it up (set it up) so right (so right) too tough (to tough) cheap lies sick of allibys in your eyes i can call your bluff cuz i really don't mind cuz tonights the night you're gunna be mine and i plan on reclaiming my throne says your gunna swing on by through thick and thin from begining to end and in the middle when i felt your change already knew where you've been but you did it again when you came around you actin' strange but for goodness's sake there's no hearts to break so later on we gon set it straight and you can stick and move but you just wanna pop pop and shake shake shake we can make it alright unplug the phone and turn on the red light so fly, gettin natural high and im ready just to bust on sight so fast, too slow to the wall, to the floor K.P. next to Envyi remix now come on
