

Kreator, As We Watch The West

On the edge i wait
See what fate may come
Just one step away
From what's left undone

On the edge i wait
Pain must stand right here
Right before my eyes
In the dreams that disapear

Silently it just dies
As We Watch The West Decline

On The edge i wait
See what fate will bring
For i have become
One with everything

One the edge i wait
Center of the light
Visions focus now
What a mind blowing sight

Silently it just dies
As We Watch The West Decline

One the edge i wait
Finally i've arived
What i'm looking for
Seemed so hard to find

On the edge i wait
Everlasting fear
Of what fate may come
It was never so clear

Silently it just dies
