

Kreator, Golden Age

Let me take you down
Deeper than you know
Reality is gone
Yet so much left to show
Let me take you down
Let us look inside
There's still so much to come
It's time to say goodbye

Broken dreams
Misery replaced by constant extasy
Wide awake open wide
existence of a better kind
Waits for you waits for me
Our minds become forever free
Free of fear free of rage
The coming of the Golden Age for all

Let me take you down
Let life fade away
The ritual has begun
Your life begins today
Let me take you down
Explore the other side
Enlightened as we drown
It's time to say goodbye

Broken dreams
Misery replaced by constant extasy
Wide awake open wide
existence of a better kind
Waits for you waits for me
Our minds become forever free
Free of fear free of rage
The coming of the Golden Age for all

Don't you turn around now
Don't you be afraid now
Celebrate the Golden Age
Celebrate The Golden Age!

Broken dreams
Misery replaced by constant extasy
Wide awake open wide
existence of a better kind
Waits for you waits for me
Our minds become forever free
Free of fear free of rage
The coming of the Golden Age for all

Waits for you waits for me
Free of fear free of rage
The coming of the Golden Age for all!

For all
All
For all
The coming of the Golden Age for all!
