

Krezip, Don't Crush Me

Don't Crush Me

He strokes her hair
But it doesn't really matter
She says she cares
Doesn't feel it at all
she taught herself to hold on tight
When the dream was there

All I know, Is all I feel
But I'm afraid to feel it

Don't crush me
Don't break me
Been trying to turn the end around
But I can see it coming
don't rush me
Don't wake me
Make me forget

She hears his voice
But she doesn't really listen
It's all just noise
Filling the air
She has to tell him but she's waiting, waiting,
Waiting

Now all I know, Is all I feel
But I'm afraid to feel it

Don't crush me
Don't break me
Been trying to turn the end around
But I can see it coming
Don't rush me
Don't wake me
Make me forget

It's all around me
It's all around me
It's all around me
But I won't see it
It's all around me
It's all around me
It's all around me
Make me forget

Don't crush me
Don't break me
Been trying to turn the end around
But I can see it coming
Don't rush me
Don't wake me
Make me forget
