

Krezip, Dreams

Dreams I've never had before
Now a part of my mind
Things I've never said before
Now are said by me all the time
It scares me the things I'm feeling now again
All the things I've said before are nothing worth anymore
I see it today it's green tomorrow it's red and after that maybe black in me
Dreams I've never had before
Now a part of my mind
Things I've never said before
Now are said by me all the time
Dreams I've never had before
Now a part of my mind
Things I've never said before
Now are said by me all the time
All the time (all the time)
All the time
All the time
