

Krezip, What Are You Waiting For?

I was just wondering why you hide from anything you never go outside the lines what does it take to make you see there's so much more to be

So I'm telling you hey, it's ok don't be scared to let it go get a little out of control (what are you waiting for) hey, it's not too late
if you don't act now
time will pass you by so come on (what are you waiting for)

No, with your bright brown eyes just shine, and we will follow you never know what till you try
there's so much more to be

So I'm telling you hey, it's ok
don't be scared to let it go
(what are you waiting for)
hey, it's not too late
if you don't act now
(what are you waiting for)

If something pulls you down get up and stand your ground don't just walk away tomorrow's too late (tomorrow's too late) tomorrow's too late (tomorrow's too late)

I was just wondering why you hide
from anything

So I'm telling you hey, it's ok
don't be scared to let it go
hey, it's not too late
