

Kris Kristofferson, Bigger The Fool, The Harder T

[Kris Kristofferson & Brenda Lee]

Hey doesn't it still look easy as it did to you hey wasn't it true after all
I couldn't help myself girl and I can't blame you
The bigger the fool the harder the fall
Living on old illusions and some make believe that mattered to me most of all
Closing my eyes to changes I've refused to see
The bigger the fool the harder the fall
Somewhere in your future on the far side of your world
You might read my writing on the wall
And think of the easy dreamer who believes in you
The bigger the fool the harder the fall

[guitar]

If somebody you wake up in a world that's turned on you
And nobody answers when you call
Think of the crazy dreamer who believes in you
The bigger the fool the harder the fall
Think of the crazy dreamer who believes in you
The bigger the fool the harder the fall
