

Krisiun, Blind Possession

Defying and marching above the sacred signs Controlled by fury of the storms from the deepest pit below I came to defend the destiny of the damned and proclame the empire's decay warrior of the evil spawn moving by black winds and following the trail of war and pain

Sworn to die serving the sword smell of dead leads my path infernal pleasure to sacrifice disgrace of the next one is my rest before the fire
full of repulsion
I summon thy enemy

Accursed from birth only the death satisfy my will bestial screams torments my soul all became black inside me ride over victims remains pounding the hammer smashin' their heads

Victimized on it's knees I hear the enemies son's crying damnation in seas of blood exalting my spirit feeding tha hate that dwells in me revengefull manifest all their terror ends in sacrifice
