

Krisiun, Obsession by Evil Force

Obsession by evil force when the pagan souls return the evil flame possesses my soul blood flowing like acid inside me Satan monarch of the whole impure sends me strenght to fight

The sacred steel in my hand makes all my enemies blees condemtation of an inferior world believers of salvation loose their hopes blood for Satan blood for Lucifer's messenger

Mankind fearing their God's monarch hidden in their rotten casked but their torment is comming to take their lifes I want to be burning in hell I want the downfall of this world the church's bastards shall die with every kind of suffering they've sown the seeds of holocaust

Immortal obsession by evil force with vengeance in my mind granted to know the black revelation I'll ride forever
condemned to live in the shadows bringing death in my hands prophecy of the lost alliance immortal obsession by the evil force I'll ride forever
