

Krispies, Miss You When You're Dead

Where ever you go there's sun ray
I've set my faith in you
A picture of face so beautiful
Sad and so abused
You'd sure like to be
Underneath that big ol' tree and dream...
Then you wake up dead
And next you wake up sad
Everything's unsaid
And nothing's going nowhere
Everything turns red
You've never heard them say
I miss you when you're dead
No matter how hard I've tried
This cell I can not break through
It's sad 'cause you'll never find your peace
Where you're going to
Your friends aren't real
But you go for that bigger deal and dream...
