

Kriss Sheridan, Fall

Tell me, how could you deceive?
How could I have been so naive?
Now I'm weak and disappointed
My heart is heavily jointed

Disillusion takes its round
Credulity has gone
Working off the debts
From dusk till dawn

Please, keep in mind that the lay
Makes me that much wiser
Makes me that much stronger

I stand up and nail it
I'm not gonna fail it
I will survive the fall
Push it up against the wall

I stand up and nail it
I'm not gonna fail it
I will survive the fall
Push it up against the wall

Never saw it coming
Sense of life has gone
Every day looks the same
Going, going, gone

Please, keep in mind that the lay
Makes me that much wiser
Makes me that much stronger

I stand up and nail it
I'm not gonna fail it
I will survive the fall
Push it up against the wall

I stand up and nail it
I'm not gonna fail it
I will survive the fall
Push it up against the wall

I stand up and nail it
I'm not gonna fail it
I will survive the fall
Push it up against the wall

I stand up and nail it
I'm not gonna fail it
I will survive the fall
Push it up against the wall

I stand up and nail it
I stand up and nail it
I stand up and nail it
I stand up and nail it