

Kristen Barry, Big Girl

Taken in Burned by
The open end of a live wire
Taken under
By a lie
There's only one way under the sky
You look good, good to me
Don't say anything, just breathe
You look good, good to me
Don't say anything, just breathe

So you want to bury me under your landslide
You ain't gonna get me alive
So you want to bury me under your landslide
It ain't gonna work this time

Little girl
Big pride
The wrong end of a homicide
Made a decision
Not to be afraid
Refused to lie in the bed that you made
You're so pretty

You're so beautiful
I know you wanted me to do it
But under this moon
Under this sky
She ain't gonna let you get away with it this time

So you want to bury me under your landslide
You ain't gonna get me alive
So you want to bury me under your landslide
It ain't gonna work this time

What am
What do
What do you think I am
What do you think I am

So you want to bury me under your landslide
You ain't gonna get me alive
So you want to bury me under your landslide
It ain't gonna work this time
