

Krister Linder, I Love You

i know you
and the force that emanates from you

and the vibe i get
with you

i love you
i go both high and low
with you

i love you
everything expands
with you

from dusk 'til dawn
through blazing storm
our love endures

i love you
i journey heights and depths
with you

i love you
i'm dreaming life and death
with you

our souls may strive
through countless lives
but neither time nor space can leave a trace
upon the light in your eyes

though not a thing
is ever what it seems though caught and caged
in a self-made maze
though eternity is vast and i'm lost and cold
though all is made anew
just to grow old
