

Krister Linder, Soft King Kong

i bow tonight
never seen you shine so bright
i bow tonight
a fool for your effulgent light
just so i may soar your heights rising like a weightless kite wide awake tonight

i swear to meet the challenge of divine love
no matter what the path will offer i'll love
i swear
gently like soft king kong i'm breaking
gently like soft king kong
i break open

i vow to light the dark and spark nocturnal sight i vow tonight
to make space for you deep inside i'm falling free
i miss the ground in ecstasy and only you can capture me save me carefully

i swear to keep the promise
of divine love
even if the world turns over
i'll love
i swear
i'm breaking

break open
an the whole of the world is yours tonight
and the whole of our love is yours
and the whole of the sky is yours
tonight
open
