

Kristian Valen, Somewhere Down The Line

I never really thought that I would fall for you 4000 miles away now what am I to do?
I never really thought I'd be the one to cry just look at my tears babe they don't lie they say that time has it's own way of healing someone please explain to me this way that I'm feeling it seems like I see your face in every crowd last night I found myself on the floor screaming your name out loud if somewhere down the line we'll meet again I hope you'll still be smiling and shine the way that only you know how just knowing that your somewhere out there making someone else feel happy somehow it makes me weak inside 4 o'clock in the morning no sleep in sight I'm so tired of everything right now nothing feels right it doesn't help that everything around me reminds me of you I see the sun rising but no warmth is getting through somehow in a weird way I'll always wish you well I've gotten really good at hiding my tears you'll never tell
