

Kristian Valen, Still Here

Are you slipping away?
This is hard for me to say
I'm barely holding on
So scared of the unknown
I'm still here
Holding your hand
Close your eyes
I'll stay beside you
I'm still here
I won't let them find you
I'll be laying right here by your side
Even though my heart is breaking
Seeing you like this I'll face it
Don't be afraid
You're not alone
From now I'll walk alone
No one to guide me
I'm completely alone
Was it worth all this pain?
For just a stolen moment
In the rain
I'm still here
Holding your hand
Close your eyes
I'll stay beside you
I'm still here
I won't let them find you
I'll be laying right here by your side
Even though my heart is breaking
Seeing you like this I'll face it
Don't be afraid
You're not alone
How can I
Move on and fly
When I still don't know
The reason why
You and I
We touched the sky
Someone give me a reason why
Close your eyes
I'll stay beside you
I'm still here
I won't let them find you
I'll be laying right here by your side
And even though my heart is breaking
Seeing you like this I'll face it
Don't be afraid
You're not alone
So close your eyes
I'll stay beside you
I'm still here
I won't let them find you
And even though my heart is breaking
Seeing you like this I'll face it
Don't be afraid
You're not alone
