

Kristin Hoffmann, Falling

Mysterious fire
You came to me unexpected
Darkened by grace, light by your touch
I grab too hard

Will you catch me
When I'm falling down in your love?
It will be the greatest sacrifice
Of this selfish heart

Mysterious fire
You burn in me, you make me want
I taste desire, I know your face
But I look too long

Will you catch me
When I'm falling down in your love?
It will be the greatest sacrifice
Of this selfish heart

No veil of fear can hide me
All my life, hoping to find myself in you

Will you catch me
When I'm falling down in your love?
Will you catch me
When I'm falling down in your love?
When I'm falling, I'm falling...
