

Kristine W., Someone

I can't remember a time
When you weren't there
To dry the tears from my eyes
Yes you always cared

And I do believe
That you were sent from heaven above
Because you taught me about love
I feel you up there somewhere
Someone watching over me

You gave me joy
You eased my pain
You showed me how to love again
And I thank you cause you always knew you'd be Watching over me

Halleluha..you came my way
Halleluha..for your birthday
Halleluha..now I see
Your watching over me

I hear your voice in the wind
When I'm needing a friend
The autumn leaves in the breeze
Bring a love that you send

And I do believe that
You are dancin' dancing on clouds
I hear you laughing
Laughing out loud
And I know you're up there somewhere
Someone watching over me
