

Kristy Lee Cook, 15 Minutes Of Shame

<!-- yeh this song is about you I am giving you more than fair warning right now on your radio everybody is gonna hear, all the things that you did that you don't not want the world to know

I'm still in the _____ I'm shouting it out you're gonna be sorry now every single lie you told on, I'm telling, every promise that you broke I am ratting you out every girl in this world is gonna know your name and I hope you enjoy your 15 minutes of shame hey your looking nervous now that your double talk has caught back up with you stick to your alibi, try to deny it when I reveal the truth, sure your pretty good at working a line, but i

every single lie you told on, I'm telling,
every girl in this world is gonna know your name and I hope you enjoy your 15 minutes of shame, shame, shame on you look who's looking like a fool blame, blame, blame yourself won't be fooling no one else anymore

every single lie you told on, I'm telling,
every girl in this world is gonna know your name and I hope you enjoy your 15 minutes of shame 15 minutes of shame, shame, shame 15 minutes of shame
