

Kristy Thirsk, Conspiracy

(Hiratzka/Thirsk)

can't forget what you said like a kick in the head then i knew it was true try to tear me down always felt so left out when you fed on my doubt pretend to help me out but all along was a plan to make me fail in the end what i saw was a failed sabotage now i have to protect myself now i know you're not a friend, i guess you know who are i was led by you to the darkness, you were so heartless i was caught in your conspiracy, conspiracy
i don't know why you were so jealous and i was the target now i'm not in your conspiracy, conspiracy i don't know what you've got against me i'm just a girl from a small town in canada there's no phones there
now i'm not in your conspiracy any more
