

Kristy Thirsk, When Doves Cry

(Nelson)

dig if you will the picture, of you and i engaged in a kiss the sweat of your body covers me, can you, my darling, can you picture this?
dream if you can a courtyard, an ocean of violets in bloom animals strike the most curious poses, they feel the heat, feel the heat between me and you how can you just leave me standing, alone in a world that's so cold?
maybe i'm just to demanding, maybe i'm just like my father, too bold maybe you're just like my mother, she's never satisfied why do we scream at each other? this is what it sounds like when doves cry touch if you will my stomach, feel how it trembles inside you've got them butterflies all tied up, don't make me chase you, even doves have pride how can you just leave me standing, alone in a world that's so cold?
maybe i'm just to demanding, maybe i'm just like my father, too bold
maybe you're just like my mother, she's never satisfied
why do we scream at each other? this is what it sounds like when doves cry
how can you just leave me standing, alone in a world that's so cold?
maybe i'm just to demanding, maybe i'm just like my father, too bold
maybe you're just like my mother, she's never satisfied
why do we scream at each other? this is what it sounds like when doves cry
this is what it sounds like when doves cry don't cry
this is what it sounds like when doves cry
