

Kronos, Kronos

...I am Kronos
The Mighty son of Ouranos Secretly stolen then hidden far off appetite of my father I grew upon a revenge way Cause mother earth Gaia beseeched me to kill our undivine killer such is the fate of my birth

Cause no one but him
Had the right to ascend the throne Cause no one else but him had the right to pretend to the crown
...I am Kronos
born from divine copulations
amongst seven, I'm the last titan son
apart of the first divine generation

I took a flintstone's scythe and violently, I cut genitor's testicles
...Left hand is now a bad omen a terrible scream unleashed the universe Vomit devine
The son of a fear symbolic...fall eternal With Rhea as bride, I resigned on Eliderealm
I am the one...The one who dominates
I am Kronos

Once enthroned
The fathermadness filled my empty veins better than ever to be alone What's use to be several?
To share is a human weakness
once enthroned
my sons declared the war and gathered as one for the colossal titan strife a war I lost, thundered by my son Zeus...

I am Kronos
born from divine copulations
amongst seven, I'm the last titan son
apart of the first divine generation...
