

Kronos, Supreme Nordik Reign

Mighty demigods whose nothern tales
And viking legends
Tell the life of those powerful monsters
Crossing the seven seas
With the hunger of destruction
Frightening heads of the dragons
Unleash the oceans of blood

Master of the sea
Cold winds show their path
Coming from bloody snow of the north
Demons ride the oceans
Water is their own kingdom
No one can win the battle
At the horizon the land shows its face
It is the time to declare the war
A cup of blood before the fight
Far off, one could hear sceams of terror
Fear, fear cowards we arrive
Step after step
They walk on the land
For the slaughter

Step after step they shake the earth
Torture of those bastards
Wich suffering falls in chaos
Torture, blood and burning corpses
Guts and flesh fly, sound of cracking bones
Vision of hello, they shake the earth
Gold and jewels we take, all children we kill
Eradication of the race
Vision of hell
Coming from the north with malefic intentions :
Slaughter
