

Krypteria, Sweet Revenge

SWEET REVENGE

You tried playing games with my soul and my mind, you lied to my face, broke my spine Youve stolen my innocence through all your shams, my heart pleads that you shall be damned
Obscuritatem, pestilentiam et malum te opto - miseria et dolor tecum
Run cause Ill trace you,
Ill chase you,
I will face you then I will erase you
Sweet revenge for all the things youve done to me
Ill bait you,
give it straight to you,
I will break you, devastate you
Sweet revenge for what youve done to me
Youve shattered my plans, all my dreams have been slain, you sent all my hopes down the drain
You think that youve still got my heart on a string sweet revenge is waiting in the wings
Obscuritatem, pestilentiam et malum te opto - miseria et dolor tecum
Run cause Ill trace you,
Ill chase you,
I will face you then I will erase you
Sweet revenge for all the things youve done to me
Ill bait you,
give it straight to you,
I will break you, devastate you
Sweet revenge for what youve done to me
Obscuritatem, pestilentiam et malum te opto - miseria et dolor tecum
Run cause Ill trace you,
Ill chase you,
I will face you then I will erase you
Sweet revenge for all the things youve done to me
Ill bait you,
give it straight to you,
I will break you, devastate you
Sweet revenge for what youve done to me
