

Krystal Harris, Love Is A Beautiful Thing

It's been so long since I met you and all the changes we've been through and all this time I can't forget you everywhere I turn I think of you and I wanna love you baby and you are all I need

Soul to soul, fire to fire nothings like this hearts desire love is a beautiful thing one to one, you and me baby it's our destiny cuz love is a beautiful thing it's so beautiful, beautiful

Love is such a sweet emotion I want to share it all with you your trust it's in this devotion there ain't nothing in this world we can't do tonight, I want to thank, thank you baby and you make my life complete

maybe it's our destiny

somebody raise your hand now yeeeeeaaah ooohh, no,no,no,no,no and I, I wanna thank you baby and you, you're all I need

Soul to soul, fire to fire
one to one, you and me

stay together thick and thin now I know I've got a friend
face our fears through the years, there's no tears oh love is a beautiful thing
nothing like this hearts desire
