

Krystal Meyers, Beauty Of Grace

Tell me why do you run
you say your so ashamed
bruised and broken
thought if i figured out the mess you made that i'd leave

But anywhere you are
is never to far away.
There's freedom from your scars.
The mistakes that you made-
forgiven-
the memories erased.
Baby, that's the beauty of grace,
lah dee dah, lah dee dah dah

Tell me what is love?
I'll never hold you to the things you may have done.
You say you want new life,
in my arms there's mercy!

But anywhere you are
is never to far away.
There's freedom from your scars.
The mistakes that you made-
forgiven-
the memories erased.
Baby, that's the beauty of grace,
lah dee dah, lah dee dah dah-
So blow a kiss goodbye to all the pain you hide!

But anywhere you are
is never to far away.
There's freedom from your scars.
The mistakes that you made-
forgiven-
the memories erased.
Baby, that's the beauty of grace,
lah dee dah, lah dee dah dah
