

Krystal Meyers, Fall To Pieces

All the twisted lies and
All the empty promises that let me down
All this time I've compromised
And tried to find the easy way out

I'm letting go of all I've known
I never thought I'd say
"There's gotta be a better way"

~Chorus~
When everything around me
Falls to pieces
I've got something more in my life
When I'm broken I see
Only you complete me
Yeah without you by my side
I fall to pieces every time

All my hopes and dreams and
All my selfish plans that crumbled in my hands
Made me realize I've gotta trust in something
Bigger than I am

I'm standing strong when all goes wrong
It's gonna be ok
I've finally found a better way

~Chorus~

A flower that's fading
Disintegrating
You're patiently waiting for me

~Chorus~ (x2)
