

Krystal Meyers, Make Some Noise

Yeah, your so conviced about who your supposed to be
I know that your confused don't take it out on me we're not afraid to try we're not afraid to dream bu Oh, Oh, shout it out get ready cause we like it loud cause we were born to make some noise don't tell me we should turn it down cause we were born to make some noise Make some noise
we're no the enemy you might be surprisd don't need hipocracy to open up our eyes we don't need cause the future now is all the remains Oh, Oh, shout it out
get ready cause we like it loud
don't tall me we should turn it down
nobody's gonna shut it down, yeah
we can turn this whole thing around come on all you girls and boys Make some noise
just for once, just for once can you think for yourself suddenly thankd we don't have any time to waste repeat chorus
