

Krystal Meyers, My Savior

I feel guilty sometimes when I pray
Stealing time from needs that are great
Still you listen to every word I say
And I want to thank you

And I
I'm amazed to call you mine

~Chorus~
My Savior
I'm laying it at your feet
Your love, it consumes me
My Savior
You've given me all I need
Your grace and your mercy

I've been thinking about what you did
I'm empty handed
So what could I give?
But all you ask of me is the life that I live
So I'll be faithful

And I
I'm not ashamed to call you mine

~Chorus~

I never wanna be away
Forever I'll pursue
Everything it takes to be with you

~Chorus~
