Krystal Meyers, My Savior

I feel guilty sometimes when I pray Stealing time from needs that are great Still you listen to every word I say And I want to thank you

And I I'm amazed to call you mine

~Chorus~ My Savior I'm laying it at your feet Your love, it consumes me My Savior You've given me all I need Your grace and your mercy

I've been thinking about what you did I'm empty handed So what could I give? But all you ask of me is the life that I live So I'll be faithful

And I I'm not ashamed to call you mine

~Chorus~

I never wanna be away Forever I'll pursue Everything it takes to be with you

~Chorus~
