

Krystal Meyers, Only You Make Me Happy

I was chasing my dreams
With a coke and a smile
Only You make me happy
If that was the real thing
Then I'm in denial
Only You make me happy
Now my heart's on my sleeve
Don't care if I'm not in style
Only You make me happy

Superficial
Fake
And fleeting
Fashion statements have no meaning

Only You make me happy
Only You make me happy
Everything will change
But You remain the same
Only You make me happy

I had it under control
I had it right where it wants me
Only You make me happy
I've got the rock and the roll
It made me one of the posse
Only You make me happy

Fame and fortune
Blind ambition
Can't replace
The love You've given

Like a song in my head
It lives and it dies
Only You make me happy
Elvis is dead
But my King is alive
Only You make me happy

Only You make me happy
Only You make me happy
Everything can go
'cause the one thing I know
Is only You make me happy
