

Krystal Meyers, Stand And Scream

My friends
They keep makin' fun of me
I hide
Behind my insecurities
But I want so bad for them to see
Anything and everything
So I'm not living in a dream

But I
Tuck my little thoughts away
I drive
Far, far, far away
I'm tired of running just to stand in place
I've had enough
Of giving up
I need the strength
To show Your love

'cause I breathe
Just to shout out
And I live
Just to scream loud
And Your love
It's here now
And I'm not running 'cause it's pushed me to the edge

I'm not gonna break
There's no mistake
I've got to
Stand and scream
Let my voice be heard
When push comes to shove
I'm rising above
I've got to stand and scream
Let my voice be heard

Now I'm
Not afraid to tell you what I really think
My life's
Gotta live the truth that I believe
'cause I want so bad for you to see
Anything and everything
The grace that owns the heart in me!

Scream loud
Shout out
Oh yeah
I will not live in silence
