

Krystal Meyers, The Beauty Of Grace

Tell me why do you run
you seemed so ashamed
bruised and broken
thought if i figured out the mess you've made
that i'd leave

but anywhere you are
is never to far away
theres freedom from your skys
the mistakes that you've made..forgivin
the memories erased
maybe thats the beauty of graaaace laldealadeda

tell me what is love
i'll never hold you too
the things you make up damn you say you want new life in my arms theres mercy

anywhere you are
is never to far away
theres freedom from your skys
is never to far away
theres freedom from your skys

all the pain you have
anywhere you are
is never to far away
anywhere you are
is never to far away

is never to far away
theres freedom from your skys
is never to far away
theres freedom from your skys
